

NGC Software's Mark Burstein Named Supply & Demand Chain Executive's 2018 Pro to Know of the Year

Burstein, president of NGC Software, was selected as the Pro to Know of the Year out of nearly 200 provider and practitioner supply chain executives named to the annual list

MIAMI—March 27, 2018 — NGC® Software, a leading provider of cloud-based solutions for product lifecycle management (PLM), supply chain management (SCM), quality control and vendor compliance, today announced that Mark Burstein, president, NGC Software, has been named Supply & Demand Chain Executive's 2018 Pro to Know of the Year.

In its 17th year, the Pros to Know Awards recognizes supply chain executives, in manufacturing and non-manufacturing enterprises, that are leading initiatives to help prepare their companies' supply chains for the significant challenges of today's business climate. This year's list includes more than 200 individuals from software firms and service providers, consultancies or academia, who helped their supply chain clients or the supply chain community at large prepare to meet these challenges—and more than 30 Practitioner Pros, who do the same within their own companies. Supply & Demand Chain Executive received more than 300 entries for the 2018 Pros to Know Awards.

"It's truly an honor to be named Supply & Demand Chain Executive's 2018 Pro to Know of the Year among such a long list of accomplished supply chain professionals," said Burstein. "This award acknowledges NGC Software's thought leadership and vision for our industry that led to the release of the Andromeda Cloud Platform™ in 2017. Andromeda is unique in its ability to enable the Digital Supply Chain and support the ever-changing state of the fashion retail industry for many years to come."
